Certification

Students of Áú°í±!¿â Law School bear a special responsibility to maintain high ethical standards for the profession. Accordingly, it is expected that each student will scrupulously regard the rights of others and will observe high ethical standards of both personal and professional conduct. The Áú°í±!¿â Law School Honor Code is concerned with discipline in a professional society, with special emphasis on examinations, law school and library procedures, preservation of property, and relationships with fellow students, faculty and staff. Violations of the Honor Code are brought before the Honor Board, a panel of elected student justices.

The Honor Code is not the exclusive source of professional standards and student disciplinary rules and procedures. The Law School reserves the right to establish, modify and enforce academic and professional standards governing satisfactory performance of students and their conduct while enrolled at Áú°í±!¿â Law School. All Áú°í±!¿â law students are bound by the Honor Code as adopted by the Law School student body and faculty.

By submitting the application electronically, I agree to be bound by the Honor Code as it is adopted by the Law School student body and the Law School faculty. I certify that the information contained herein and in any supplemental documents is true, correct and complete to the best of my knowledge. I shall promptly notify law school officials in the event that anything happens prior to my enrollment at Áú°í±!¿â Law School that would change the information contained in this application or its supporting documents. I understand that the obligation to report changes extends to the period of time during my law school enrollment as well. I understand that any false or misleading statement, omission of subsequent or material facts, or incomplete application may be the basis of denial of admission, revocation of an offer of admission, or dismissal from law school if already enrolled.
