

Drake University on Extra Compensation

Consulting, performing, and similar professional activities when compensation for them is received from a source other than the University,

The University imposes no limitation on the amount of activity or compensation in from outside sources as long as such work does not interfere with the full and effective performance of the individual's regular responsibilities to the University.

- b. Participation in activities beyond the regular responsibilities of the faculty member when compensation for them is received from the University. In such cases:
 - 1. If the work is of a continuing nature, every effort should be made to make fractional appointments as part of the regular appointment of the faculty member.
 - 2.

